Dear Customer,

Anglia Culinary Suppliers Ltd is an independent family owned company offering the caterer the most comprehensive range of ambient, chilled and frozen products. Unlike our competitors, we do not sell the goods we have in stock but supply the goods you require, a subtle but important difference. Our range is suitable for all types of caterer, covering basic items through to more specialised lines.

The company dates back to 1969 and was founded by our chairman, Richard Wells. Richard's career began in the food halls of Harrods, he then progressed onto working for a London based wholesaler, a company he has since taken over. In 1993 Nicolas Wells joined the company having trained and worked in restaurant management both locally and abroad. After 12 years learning all aspect of the family business Nicolas became Managing Director in 2005.

Our success is based on the traditional values of customer service, whilst we are keen to invest in the latest I.T systems, vehicles and staff; we never forget that our business is about our customers.

With a prompt and reliable delivery service covering Norfolk, Suffolk and Cambridgeshire.

All deliveries are made using our own fleet of ambient, chilled and frozen vehicles. The goods are carefully monitored and temperatures recorded through-out the storage and transport procedure, in order to maintain the quality of our product.

Please do not hesitate to contact our office for a personalised quote, to place an order or for further details of our service, delivery days and terms.

Best Wishes

N Wells

Nick Wells

Managing Director.
